Introduction

This webinar is designed to help you develop and apply your creative thinking skills as an HR manager and leader. You will learn how to understand and overcome the conceptual blocks that hinder your creativity, such as constancy, compression, and complacency. You will also learn how to use various tools and techniques to define problems and generate new ideas, such as brainstorming, mind mapping, and SCAMPER. By the end of this webinar, you will be able to; explain the concept and types of creativity and innovation, identify and overcome the conceptual blocks that limit your creative thinking, apply the three components of creativity: expertise, motivation, and creative thinking skills, recognize and foster the paradoxical characteristics of creative groups, use various tools and techniques to define problems and generate new ideas and create a creative climate in your organization and team.

Objectives

The objective of the Creative Thinking Skills for HR Managers training is to;
