Course Overview

Become a certified expert in HR auditing and master the skills needed to evaluate HR functions, manage risks, and drive organizational excellence. This 6-day course provides practical tools and systematic frameworks to ensure compliance, assess workplace integrity, and implement strategic audits that strengthen HR operations.

HR has a legal and a financial impact on the organization. Therefore, HR Professionals should ensure the integrity and accuracy of the data they use and the processes they follow in their departments. One way to ensure that this is actually happening is by auditing the HR processes & activities currently in place.

This course is designed to help participants identify the critical areas in HR that must be audited through an in depth step - by - step process and systematic series of questions about key compliance, risk management, internal audit, and HR Management issues. HR audits should additionally provide suggestions for corrective action.

This program answers the question: Is the HR Function Fit to Purpose?
