Course Overview

This six-day program equips HR professionals, supervisors, and team leaders with the tools and insights to design, implement, and sustain a high-impact performance management system. Participants will explore the full performance cycle—from setting SMART goals and defining KPIs to conducting fair appraisals and managing feedback. The course emphasizes strategic alignment, employee development, and continuous improvement using tools like the Balanced Scorecard, performance criteria, and evidence-based evaluation methods. Through simulations, case studies, and planning labs, participants will gain the confidence to lead performance conversations, reduce bias, and build a culture of excellence.

Course Objectives
